

The Training Counsellors of Scouts and Guides:

Training Counsellors of Scouts and Guides may be appointed by the concerned District Commissioners (Adult Resources) on the recommendation of the District Training Commissioner concerned for a particular area. The Training Counsellor should preferably be a H.W.B. Holder/Senior Scouter/Guider in the ratio of 15 to 20 units of each section.

Functions of the Training Counsellors:

- (2.1) To be responsible to give personal support, self-training, informal training to the Unit Leaders of the area.
- (2.2) To advise, aid and help in the activities of the Units of the area.
- (2.3) To help Unit Leaders for their personal development and progress of their units.
- (2.4) To report to the concerned Assistant District Commissioner of area.
- (2.5) To report to the District Training Commissioner and District Organising Commissioner relating to their areas of work in respect of those units in the area.
- (2.6) To help the Unit Leaders in arranging Badge Instructors and Badge Examiners as per the decision taken by the Badge Committee.